TEMPLE DINSLEY

2012

Sunday 12th August – 9.30 am to

Wednesday 15th August - 5 pm

This course is open to all London Suzuki Group (LSG) and British Suzuki Institute (BSI) members.

Every child is timetabled for four teaching sessions a day, this will include:

Private lesson (The teachers work individually with 4 children in a session) and a Suzuki Group Lesson,

Then 2 of the following class's dependant on age and ability:

Dalcroze, Musicianship, Improvisation, Music Mind Games, Orchestra, Ensemble, Chamber Music.

Classes start at 8.30am and finish by 6pm

Performance Platform: We offer everyone the opportunity to perform in a Monday Recital platform.

Parent Talks: Inspirational parent talks while children are looked after in musicianship sessions.

For Younger Siblings: There will be a free musicianship class for siblings.

For Parents: An organised music-making group is arranged in the evenings, please bring your instruments with you.

Accommodation is in school bedrooms of various sizes. Private rooms will be allocated to early applicants.

Swimming: Heated open air pool.

Tennis: Grass and hard courts.

Art: All children have the opportunity to do creative art. This is very popular.

TEMPLE DINSLEY is an early Georgian house of moderate size, much enlarged by Lutyens in 1908. It now houses a school, called Princes Helena College, and is set in rolling hills five miles south of Hitchin. It is easily accessible from London (35 miles) by road and rail. The gardens, designed by Lutyens' friend Gertrude Jekyll, are extensive and contain a heated outdoor swimming pool.
